

MINED– Lesson Plan Format

A. Lesson Plan Information

Subject: ENGLISH

School: La Corona

Unit: Unit 3, HOME SWEET HOME

Topic: ➤ Lesson 4: Describing my classroom Time: 90 minutes

- Vocabulary: Classroom objects and furniture.
- Grammar: There is / There are question tags.
- Reading: 3. Reading conversations about imaginary situations about houses.
- Listening: Listening for specific information.
- Speaking: Asking and answering questions about your classroom.
- Writing: Writing about your classroom.
- Pronunciation: Consonant clusters (/pl, /sm/)
- Language functions: Making predictions

Grade Dates:

7 B	Monday, June 8 th , 2026
7 A	Tuesday, June 9 th , 2026

B. Learning Indicator

The student describes his or her classroom using there is / there are

Evaluation Criteria

The student:

1. Identifies vocabulary related to classroom objects using flashcards.
2. Uses the correct grammar structure while interacting in short conversations related to classroom objects.
3. Demonstrates understanding, good behavior and motivation by working in pair in a roll play

C. Learning strategies

Opening Activities

Warm up:

Objective: Review classroom objects and prepare students to use “There is” and “There are”

Procedure:

1. Ask all students to keep their backpacks closed.
2. Tell them:
“Today we are going to play a game called “What is in your backpack?”
3. Invite one student to the front
4. The student takes out one object from his/ her backpack
5. What is it?
6. The student tries to say the word in English
Example: Student takes out scissors
Student says “Scissors”
7. Immediately point to the class and say: “Everybody!”
Whole class: “Scissors”
8. Write the word on the board
9. Continue with several students.

Review/ Prior Knowledge: The students remember the grammar and vocabulary learned in the last lesson.

1. The teacher shows images 1
2. Read a sentence describing the quantity of a specific furniture in the picture
3. Students decide if the sentence read by the teacher is correct or incorrect, every time that they consider the sentence is correct they stay seated down, but every time that they consider that the sentence is incorrect they stand up.

Example:

Picture 1: Living room with a sofa

Teacher says: There is a sofa in the living room

Students say: Correct!

Picture 2: Kitchen with one refrigerator

Teacher: There ~~are~~ a refrigerator in the kitchen

Students: Incorrect!

Teacher: What is the correct sentence?

Students: There is a refrigerator in the kitchen

Presentation of New content: Vocabulary explanation

Show flashcards one by one focusing on singular objects and plural objects:

Ask:

1. What is it?
2. Is it singular or plural?
3. How many can you see?

Flashcards:

Chairs	Books	Pencil colors	A calculator	A backpack	Wastebasket	Correction fluid
Books	Markers	Pens	A ruler	An eraser	Scotch tape	Stapler
Pencils	Calculator	Notebooks	A sharpener	A computer	Glue	Highlighter
Printer	Pencil Case	Folder	File cabinet	First aid kit	Stamp	Paper

Student Instructions:

Students answer orally.

Example:

Teacher: What is it?

Student: It is a chair.

Grammar Explanation: There Is / There Are

We use There is and There are to describe things in a place.

Grammar chart

Structure	Use
There is	Singular
There are	Plural

Examples:

Singular	Plural
There is a desk.	There are desks.
There is a window.	There are windows.
There is a backpack.	There are backpacks.

Negative Form

Singular	Plural
There isn't a chair.	There aren't chairs.

Questions

Singular	Plural
Is there a board?	Are there desks?
Examples
Is there a teacher's desk?	Are there windows?

SHORT ANSWERS

Question	Answer
Is there a board?	Yes, there is.
Is there a TV?	No, there isn't.
Are there desks?	Yes, there are.
Are there computers?	No, there aren't.

Middle Activities: Controlled/ Free practice

Listening: The teacher read twice aloud the following text, and the students listened to it carefully.

Welcome to my classroom. There is a big board in the front. There are many chairs. There is one cabinet file. There are two doors. There is a teacher's desk near the board.

Exercise

Write T (True) or F (False).

1. There is a big board: _____
2. There aren't chairs: _____
3. There isn't a cabinet file: _____
4. There are two doors: _____
5. There is a teacher's desk: _____

Reading: The students read the following text:

My Classroom

My classroom is nice and clean. There is a big board in the front. There are many chairs. There are two doors and many windows. There is a file cabinet. There are many notebooks, pencils and backpacks in the classroom. I like my classroom because it is comfortable.

Reading Comprehension:

Answer the questions with short and long answers:

1. Is the classroom clean?
2. Is there a big board?
3. How many chairs are there?
4. How many backpacks are there?
5. Why does the student like the classroom?

Answers Examples:

1. Yes, there is
2. Yes, there are
3. Because it is comfortable.

Writing: The students complete the following exercise with “there is” and “there are”,

Activity 1: Complete the Sentences

1. _____ a board?
2. _____ chairs.
3. _____ a teacher's desk.
4. _____ books.
5. _____ Windows
6. _____ backpacks in the classroom?

Speaking: The students work in pairs to say the following dialogue model:

Dialogue Model

Student A: Is there a big board in the classroom?

Student B: Yes, there is.

Student A: Are there chairs?

Student B: Yes, there are.

Student A: Are there computers?

Student B: No, there aren't.

Closing Activities

Wrap up: Teacher asks:

- What did we learn today?
- When do we use There is?
- When do we use There are?

Students answer orally.

Evaluation:

Students look around the classroom and mark with a check of the names of the objects they can appreciate.

Object	Yes	No
Board
Backpacks
Windows
Chairs
Books
Pencils
Markers

D. Homework:

Write 5 sentences using the grammar and vocabulary explained

- There is
- There are

E. My reflections on the lesson / Observations
