

Gobierno de Reconciliación
y Unidad Nacional
El Pueblo, Presidente!

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

GENERAL OFFICE OF SECONDARY EDUCATION
REGULAR SECONDARY EDUCATION
DIDACTICAL PROGRAMS

General data

Subject: Foreign Language.

Grade: 7th

Period: June and July

Teacher's Name: Katlin Hernandez, Dania Osegueda, Leonel Ramos

School's Name: _____

DIDACTICAL PROGRAMS

Cross-curricular theme: Personal, social, and emotional identity.

Component: Emotional intelligence.

Competence: Demonstrate a positive attitude when dealing with feelings and emotions in different situations in their surroundings.

Grade Competence:

1. The student uses a wide range of descriptive, subject-specific, and academic vocabulary to connect and communicate ideas when discussing familiar topics.
2. The student uses strategies such as re-reading, predicting, and word recognition to understand varied text types related to the house.
3. The student generates ideas to organize and develop a paragraph by using pre-writing skills (graphic organizers, clusters, brainstorming).

Unit	Achievement Indicator	Content	Evaluation Criteria	Starting Date	Ending Date
UNIT 3 HOME SWEET HOME	3. The student describes their dream house, using familiar words and structures.	Lesson 3: Describing furniture and home appliances. ➤ Vocabulary: Furniture/appliances. ➤ Grammar: ¿Is there...? / Are there...? ➤ Reading: Reading conversations about imaginary situations about houses. ➤ Listening: Taking notes from audio/conversations. ➤ Speaking: Talking about what their dream houses will look like. ➤ Writing: Writing about your dream house. ➤ Pronunciation: Consonant clusters (/dr/, /fr/, /st/) ➤ Language functions: Writing descriptions related to the house.	The student 1. Uses correctly there is and there are with furniture and home and home appliances 2. Ask and respond questions with there is and there are in singular, plural in a role play. 3. Act with responsibility and commitment in the task to develop.	June 1st	to 05th

Gobierno de Reconciliación
y Unidad Nacional
El Pueblo, Presidente!

	4. The student describes his or her classroom using there is / there are.	Lesson 4: Describing my classroom. ➤ Vocabulary: Classroom objects and furniture. ➤ Grammar: There is / There are question tags. ➤ Reading: 3. Reading conversations about imaginary situations about houses. ➤ Listening: Listening for specific information. ➤ Speaking: Asking and answering questions about your classroom. ➤ Writing: Writing about your classroom. ➤ Pronunciation: Consonant clusters (/pl, /sm/) ➤ Language functions: Making predictions.	The student 1. Identifies vocabulary related to classroom object using flashcards. 2. Uses the correct grammar structure while interacting in short conversations related to classroom objects. 3. Demonstrates understanding, good behavior and motivation by working in pair in a rol play	June 8th	to 12th
--	--	--	---	-----------------	----------------

Cross-curricular theme: Personal, social, and emotional identity. Component: Self-awareness.

Competence: Demonstrate a positive attitude when dealing with feelings and emotions in different situations in their surroundings.

Grade Competence:

1. The student uses phrases and proper structures to produce spontaneous and planned spoken interactions related to the community with accurate pronunciation.
2. The student shows an understanding of descriptive texts by extracting specific information related to cities and communities worldwide.

The student uses proper connectors in compound sentences to write descriptive texts that include place descriptions, postcards, or brochures

Unit	Learning indicator	contents	Assessment Criteria	Date
Unit: 4 LOCAL AND WIDER COMMUNITY	The student uses polite language when asking and responding about the community	Lesson 1: Asking about places in a town. Vocabulary: Places in the city. Grammar: Imperatives (turn left, go ahead, walk straight on). Reading: Understanding directions using maps. Listening: Identifying starting points and destinations in a map. Speaking: Talking about stores and other places in their community. Writing: Writing about their favorite place in the community or city. Pronunciation: Stressed in three-or-more- syllable words. ➤ Language functions: Giving the right stress in words with three or more syllables.	The student: 1 Identifies vocabulary related to places in his/her community, city or town by using maps and Audios 2 Asks and gives directions of some places from his/her community in oral and written activities. 3 Shows interest in his/her assignments demonstrating respect and responsibilities.	June 15 to 19th

Gobierno de Reconciliación
y Unidad Nacional
El Pueblo, Presidente!

LOCAL AND WIDER COMMUNITY	The student responds to simple questions about directions using familiar words and prepositions for locations.	➤ Lesson 2 Vocabulary: Preposition of location: towards, across, near, up, over, on. ➤ Grammar: Wh- questions ➤ Reading: Reading about tourist places in a community. ➤ Listening: Identifying supporting information. ➤ Speaking: Asking for and giving directions and locations. ➤ Writing: Writing a conversation between a tourist and a local, giving directions. ➤ Pronunciation: Stressed in three-o-more- syllable words. Language functions: Understanding main ideas from conversations and written texts.	The student: 1 Recognizes preposition of location, wh questions and tourist places in his/her community by using flashcards. 2 Interacts asking and giving directions about some locations in her/her community using the correct prepositions. 3 Follows the instructions responsibility to achieve meaningful learning.	June 22 to 26th epi June 29 to july 3
---------------------------	--	---	---	---

PARA EL PROXIMO SEMESTRE

Unit	Learning indicator	contents	Assessment Criteria	Date
Unit: 4 LOCAL AND WIDER COMMUNITY	The student writes a short text describing where a particular building is located and why it is important	Lesson 3: Asking about transportation. ➤ Vocabulary: Means of transportation, verbs of motion ➤ Grammar: Linking/contrasting: first, then, next, after that, and, but, so. ➤ Reading: Making inferences from texts. ➤ Listening: Listening for details about means of transportation. ➤ Speaking: Asking for and giving directions and locations. ➤ Writing: Writing a blog entry describing places. ➤ Pronunciation: Stressed in three-o-more- syllable words. ➤ Language functions: Understanding main ideas from conversations and written texts.	The student: 1 Lists vocabulary related to means of transportation and useful verbs and phrases about it 2 Creates a blog describing details of means of transportation and share it in oral and written way. 3 Demonstrates solidarity in his/her collaborative work in order to achieve a meaningful learning.

Gobierno de Reconciliación
y Unidad Nacional
El Pueblo, Presidente!

Unit: 4 LOCAL AND WIDER COMMUNITY	Discusses places they have visited in the city and explain why he/she would / wouldn't like to visit again.	Lesson 4: Traveling about Nicaragua. ➤ Vocabulary: Describing adjectives for places. ➤ Grammar: Would / wouldn't like to... ➤ ➤ Reading: Identifying words using visual support, inferring information. ➤ Listening: Note-taking ➤ Speaking: Discussing tourist attractions in the community. ➤ Writing: Writing a travel guide blog. ➤ Pronunciation: Would / Wouldn't. ➤ Language functions: Describing location.	The student: 1 Names some adjectives to describe places around Nicaragua by listening audios and watching videos. 2 Applies the correct grammar structure in his/her written and oral texts. 3 Demonstrates understanding, good behavior and motivation by working in group the suggested assignments
--	--	--	---	--