

MINED– Lesson Plan Format

Grade Dates:

8	Tuesday, July 1st, 2025

A. Lesson Plan Information

Subject: ENGLISH

School: La Corona

Unit: IV What do you need today?

Topic: ☐ Buying at the corner store

Time: 90
minutes

☐

☐

B. Achievement Indicator:

The student writes a conversation between a shop assistant and a customer

Evaluation Criteria:

1. He /she Correctly differentiates between "how much" (uncountable) and "how many" (countable).
2. He/she maintains a logical sequence in the conversation
3. He/she shows polite and respectful language

C. Learning strategies

Opening Activities

Warm up: The students stand up and get into pairs: They must choose any of the products drawn by the teacher on the whiteboard.

One in front of each other, both mention his/ her name and his/ her favorite products of that are illustrated on the whiteboard.

Review/ Prior Knowledge: The students look at and read interrogative sentences with their answers that are written on the whiteboard, they must pay attention to its grammatical structure and the subject of every clause.

Sentences:

1. How many cookies does Francis buy?

She buys a few cookies, maybe three or four

2. How much milk do Kenner and Mayuri want?

They want just a little, maybe 1 liter

3. How many eggs do Amalia and Francis purchase?

They purchase a few, maybe twelve or six.

4. How much jam does Ronaldo ask for?

He asks for some, maybe a kilo

Then, they share what they are thinking about the sentences. They can start answering questions like:

1. When we can use “how much”, and “how many”?
2. What do you know about countable and uncountable nouns?

Presentation of New content:

The teacher explains the correct uses of ‘how much’ and ‘how many’, giving examples:

- Use How much...? Whit uncountable nouns (e.g. Chocolate, milk, jam, sugar)
With uncountable nouns there is only one form of the word, e.g. sugar, water
- Use How many...? Whit countable nouns (e.g. Eggs, cookies, potatoes)
Countable nouns usually have different singular and plural forms, e.g. egg, eggs

The teacher explains when we can use some, a little, and a few:

Some +uncountable nouns:

Some information

Some prices

Some trainers

(a) little + uncountable noun:

(a) little water

(a) little money

Example: There is a little water in the cup

(a) few + plural noun:

(a) few books
(a) few people
Example: There are a few books on the table
a little = some but not much
I speak a little Spanish. (= some Spanish but not much) a: Can you speak Spanish? b: A little.
a few = some but not many
I speak a few words of Spanish.
a: Are there any shops near here? b: Yes, a few.

Middle Activities: Controlled/ Free practice

Listening: The students listen to the explanation provided by the teacher.

Speaking: The students read out the sentences with their answers that were written by the teacher to review the prior Knowledge.

Sentences:

1. How many cookies does Francis buy?

She buys a few cookies, maybe three or four

2. How much milk do Kenner and Mayuri want?

They want just a little, maybe 1 liter

3. How many eggs do Amalia and Francis purchase?

They purchase a few, maybe twelve or six.

4. How much jam does Ronaldo ask for?

He asks for some, maybe a kilo

Writing: In pairs, the students write one short conversation using: how much? how many?

A little, and a few.

Activity 1: using the present simple and the vocabulary below: write with your classmate four simple sentences with their answers applying the correct uses of: How much?

How many?

A little

A few

Vocabulary:

Countable nouns: grapes, bananas, apples, pineapples

Uncountable nouns: milk, yogurt, water, coffee.

Reading:

The students read their sentences and ask for feedback if it is necessary.

Closing Activities

Wrap up: The students present the activity 1 to the teacher.

Evaluation:

The students answer the following questions:

1. What do you learn today?
2. Why is it important to know the correct uses of How much...? How many...?... a little, a few, and some.
3. Do you think the current topic is useful? Why? Why not?

D. Homework:

Write a logical conversation applying the correct uses of How much...? How many...?... a little, a few. The text must have at least six sentences. You must present your conversation in front of your classmate the next class.

E. My reflections on the lesson / Observations
