- c. "Drives a bus." = Driver

Students answer all together (choral response) to save time.

Review/ Prior Knowledge:

The teacher identifies which students already understand the present simple tense and occupations in an active and visible way.

1. The teacher writes on the whiteboard the following sentence. The sentences must be a mix of correct and incorrect sentences:

- "He works in a school."
- "She work in a hospital."
- "They works every day."
- "I work every day."

2. The teacher calls on a few students:

“Why is it incorrect?”

“What is the correct sentence?”

Presentation of New Content:

Activities:

1. The teacher introduces vocabulary about occupations and give an explanation of the pronunciation and its meaning to the students:
2. The teacher also explains the most important grammar rules about the correct use of the simple present tense.

Simple Present

and its rules (S – ES – IES)

Affirmative sentences + Third person singular

HE – SHE – IT

- 1 At minimum, we add "S" to all verbs when we make sentences with these pronouns.
Example: She calls Juan.
- 2 Add "ES" to verbs when they end in:
O – X – Z – S – SS – SH – CH
Example: She goes to the park.
- 3 When a verb ends in "Y" and there is a consonant before the "Y", remove the "Y" and add "IES".
Example: Jhon studies English.
- 4 The verb HAVE changes to HAS in the third person.
Example: Carmen has a car.
- 5 With modal verbs, do NOT apply any of these rules.
Example: She cans dance ❌ That's not correct!
